

Curriculum Vitae Agnes Weber

Agnes Weber, born Nov. 27th, 1951, from Wohlen (Aargau, Switzerland), living in Zurich

Professional career

- since 2011 Co-director and Lecturer at the University of Applied Science of Lucerne (Department of Economy), Certificate of Advanced Studies in Educational Governance (in planning)

- since 2010 Director of Education Agnes Weber GmbH, Zurich (working together with partners on a variety of projects, see www.agnesweber.ch)

- since 2009 Lecturer at the University of Applied Science Northwestern Switzerland (a variety of educational topics)

- since 2004 Mandates for Education in Zurich (my company, founded in 2004) (educational concepts and studies, curricula, evaluations of curricula, training professors at Universities, Universities of Applied Science and of Institutions of Vocational Education in Switzerland, Austria, Germany and German-speaking Italy how to teach and how to develop their teaching)

- since 2000 Member of the counseling board (of the Swiss government) for Equality at the Universities of Applied Science (fostering equality for students and academic lecturers and supporting applied research in gender and diversity with project money)

- 2006 – 2009 Project director of the conceptual framework of the common curriculum for 11 years of compulsory schooling (all subjects) for 21 (out of 26) German-speaking and multilingual cantons (states) of Switzerland (competency-oriented curriculum)

2002 – 2006	Educational planner of the canton of Thurgau, Frauenfeld (data-based counseling of the educational minister on all subjects of educational planning on all educational levels)
2000 – 2002	Project director of the foundation of the Red Cross of Zurich-Fluntern (today Careum, Zurich) to create a new curriculum für the vocational training in Nursing education (a problem-based learning curriculum with skillslabs and self-study area)
1995 – 2000	Instructor of teachers who train nurses at the Center of further education for Nursing professions of the Red Cross (Weiterbildungszentrum für Gesundheitsberufe, WE'G), Aarau and lecturer at the Master program of Nursing Science of the Maastricht University in Aarau (research methods)
1995 – 1999	Elected member of the Swiss Parliament for the canton of Aargau, Bern (strong involvement for vocational education that is planned on a national level, equality and educational policies)
1989 – 1995	Student of Educational Science, Psychology and Didactics at the University of Zurich
1989 – 1994	Teacher at Secondary I, parttime
1989 – 1995	Elected member of the Parliament of the canton of Aargau
1972 – 1989	Teacher at Secondary I (teaching 15- and 16-yrs.-old youths, all subjects, including English and French) (1972 – 1989)
1972 – 1981	Between 1972 and 1981 5 years of study, travel and work abroad (France, USA, Japan, Central America)

Academic and educational record

since 1997	Further education in Problem-Based Learning (at the Center of further education for Nursing professions Aarau, at the University of Maastricht, at the University of Tampere & at the Polytechnic of Lahti, Finland etc.)
since 1995	Further education in Switzerland and abroad about trends, studies and developments to a wide variety of themes of the areas of educational science, educational research, educational policies, vocational education, compulsory school, gender and diversity, learning, didactics, communication, leadership, quality etc.
2002	Further education of Research Methods in social sciences at the University of Zurich
1999 – 2000	Further Education at the University of Basel (Wirtschaftswissenschaftliches Zentrum) in General Management
1989 – 1995	Studies at the University of Zurich: Social and Educational Sciences such as Pedagogy, Social Pedagogy, Social Psychology, General

- Didactics, quantitative and qualitative Research Methods (Master degree, empirical study on perceptions of the future and professional orientation of 16yrs.-old youths)
- 1988 Further education to become an expert teacher at the Teacher Training's College of the canton of Aargau (expert teachers are responsible for the practical training of new teachers)
- 1986 – 1987 Further education for teachers at the canton of Aargau (so-called 'Intensivweiterbildung').
- 1983 Eligible to teach English at Secondary I
- 1974 Diploma to teach at Secondary I (medium level, all subjects, including French)
- 1973 – 1974 Study of 'Civilisation et Culture Française' at the Section Universitaire of the Sorbonne University in Paris, France
- 1972 Diploma as a teacher of Primary and Secondary I (lower level) and Certificate of the Gymnasium
- 1969 – 1970 Senior year and Diploma of the St. Teresa - High School of Decatur Illinois, USA (Student exchange with American Field Service, AFS)
- 1958 – 1972 Compulsory schooling, Gymnasium and Teacher Trainings' College at Wohlen, canton of Aargau

Publications (selection)

www.agnesweber.ch

Speeches and active participation at congresses in Switzerland and abroad (selection)

www.agnesweber.ch

Mandates in Switzerland and abroad (selection)

www.agnesweber.ch

February 11th, 2011/AW

